RECENT TOBA EVENTS:

CLASS OF '79 - 30 YEAR REUNION

A group of 40 Class of '79 Old Boys gathered together at Rosie O'Grady's in Northbridge to celebrate their 30th anniversary reunion. Matthew Quartermaine entertained and impressed the troops by sharing his memories of people and events from the nine years he spent at the College. One inspirational teacher — Duncan McLaren joined the reunion, much to the delight of the cohort.

A big thank you to Guy Ioppolo and Cliff Carter for co-ordinating the reunion.

TOBA would also like to thank the Class of '79 for their kind donation.

Class of '79: Baden Bowen, Ken Dean, Greg Gibson & Matt Quartermaine

CLASS OF '99 - 10 YEAR REUNION

Although ten years had passed it was clear that the TC spirit was still as strong as ever with an excellent turnout to celebrate the Class of '99 - 10th anniversary reunion.

Old Boys travelled from overseas, interstate and from the country to celebrate, and a great night was had by all.

A big thank you to Marc Paratore for co-ordinating the reunion.

OLD BOY NEWS:

AFL DRAFT

Three Trinity College Old Boys were drafted to AFL clubs last week. Kane Lucas ('08) was picked at #12 and heads off to join another Old Boy Jeff Garlett ('06) at Carlton; Travis Colyer ('08) was selected by Essendon at #26 and Mitch Duncan ('08) was picked by Geelong at #28. What a great result for the College to be involved in producing three quality footballers in the same year. Congratulations to these boys and also to the coaches who have been responsible for developing the boys talents.
