It was an absolute pleasure to have Feature Artist Ida Ernhardt as the artist in residence for the duration of the Exhibition. Judges Rita Basilio (Trinity College Art Co-ordinator) and Lina Linton (Artist) were unanimous in their decision, with first prize being awarded to Robin Yakinthou for 'The Adventures of Hercule and the Water Hydrant' in bronze, brass and stainless steel.

A big thank you to Peter Kennedy, Tim Bailey, Alex Banovich, Hugh Cahill, Michael Dillon, Bevan Kerr and George Atzemis for organising a memorable evening at the Royal Perth Yacht Club to celebrate the Class of '59—50th Anniversary Reunion. Almost 40 Old Boys were joined by Brothers John Carrigg, Gerry Faulkner, Geoff Seaman and Ernie Travers. CLASS OF '89 - 20 YEAR REUNION

Over 60 Old Boys gathered together to celebrate their 20th Anniversary Reunion at Rosie O'Grady's in Northbridge. Old Boys travelled from as far afield as the UK and Queensland. The consensus was that too much fun was had to wait another 20 years to get together, so efforts will be made to reunite on a more frequent basis. Special thanks to David Foti for co-ordinating the event.

Mark Millington, Andrew Newman, Craig Sommerville, Jason Brown & Mark Scully

CLASS OF '84 - 25 YEAR REUNION

A great night was had by all at the Class of '84 - 25 Year Reunion. Head Prefect, Paul O'Connell, lead the cohort in a rousing version of Rickety Rick (War Cry) half way through the evening in the middle of Rosie O'Grady's, much to the amusement of other patrons. Special thanks to Jamie Falzon and Matthew Edmondson for co-ordinating the event.

TOBA WELCOMES THE CLASS OF '09

TOBA welcomed 175 Class of '09 students into the fold with a celebration Breakfast.

Guest speaker Bill Harries ('71) delivered his words of wisdom to the boys, including "When you finish your school life soon, keep in touch with your mates. They are the best asset you can have. Enjoy the good times with them and support each other through the tough times. One way of staying in touch with your classmates is of course TOBA".

Old Boys Ties were then presented to each of the boys and the tradition of taking off their Student tie and putting on their Old Boy tie took place. The Year 12 boys were piped into Gibney Hall for their final assembly, appearing soon after to celebrate with a heartfelt Trinity College rumble... not a dry eye in the house!

FIRST XI CRICKET TEAM

Team members from the Trinity College 1985 and 2005 First XI Teams that won the Darlot Cup formed a team to challenge the current Trinity College First XI Team. Current Trinity College won the toss and elected to bat, making a respectable 172. The chase began with Current Trinity College displaying some fine bowling. The Old Boys won the match in the last over, but more importantly enjoyed playing a competitive game of cricket filled with the Trinity spirit.
